

Administrative Assistant or Officer - Courts

Administrative assistants or officers (courts) do clerical and support work for the Justice of the Peace (JP) Courts, Sheriff Courts, the Court of Session and the High Court of Justiciary. They may also be known as court officers.

The Work

You could be:

- attending court sessions to help and advise on procedure
- setting the dates and times and allocating courtrooms for court cases
- preparing a list of each day's court cases
- preparing papers for civil court hearings and typing up minutes
- answering enquiries at a reception desk or on the phone
- checking in witnesses and calling jurors for cases
- issuing court orders and handling warrants, summonses, initial writs and simple divorce papers
- carrying out general admin tasks – photocopying, filing, dealing with mail
- working out and collecting legal fees and fines.

Pay

The figures below are only a guide. Actual pay rates vary, depending on:

- where you work
