

Higher Gaelic (Learners) (Course Code: C831 76)

SCQF Level 6 (24 Credit Points)

Why study Gaelic (Learners)?

Learning a new language allows you to make connections with different people and their cultures. Language is at the core of thinking. You reflect, communicate and develop ideas through language.

Studying Gaelic will deepen your knowledge and understanding of Scottish culture and heritage. The recent revival in the Gaelic language means there are now more career opportunities for people who can speak it. Career options include teaching, the performing arts, media and literature and in TV and radio.

What do I need to get in?

Entry is at the discretion of the school or college but you would normally be expected to have achieved:

- National 5 Gaelic (Learners)

What will I study?

The course consists of two areas of study.

Understanding Gaelic (Learners)

You will:

- develop and extend reading and listening skills in Gaelic
- develop your knowledge and understanding of detailed and complex Gaelic in the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture.

Using Gaelic (Learners)

You will:

- develop and extend talking and writing skills in Gaelic
- develop your knowledge and understanding of detailed and complex Gaelic in the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture.

How will I be assessed?

Please note - for the 2022-23 session there is no assignment, only the 4 components.

The course assessment has five components totalling 120 marks:

- Component 1: question paper 1 (reading) – worth 30 marks
- Component 2: question paper 1 (directed writing) – worth 20 marks (scaled up to 30 for 2022-23 session)
- Component 3: question paper 2 (listening) – worth 20 marks (scaled up to 30 for 2022-23 session)
- Component 4: assignment (writing) – worth 20 marks
- Component 5: performance (talking) – worth 30 marks.

For the assignment component, you will be required to produce a piece of writing (200-250 words) in Gaelic based on one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, culture.

For the performance component, you will take part in a discussion with your teacher or lecturer, using detailed and complex language on at least two different contexts, and respond to questions in Gaelic relating to each of the contexts.

The performance component is set and verified externally by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA), and assessed and marked by your school or college.

Both the question papers and the assignment are set and externally marked by SQA.

The grade awarded is based on the total marks achieved across course assessment.

The course assessment is graded A-D.
