

Higher German (Course Code: C834 76)

SCQF Level 6 (24 Credit Points)

Why study German?

Learning a new language allows you to connect with different people and their cultures. You think, communicate and create ideas through language.

German is widely spoken in Europe, in countries such as: Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, Switzerland and, of course, Germany. It is one of the ten most spoken languages in the world. Germany is the biggest economy in Europe and the fourth biggest in the world. So, there are plenty of opportunities to use German in a wide range of industries and organisations. It is one of the top five business languages currently in demand in the UK.

What do I need to get in?

Entry is at the discretion of the school or college, but you would normally be expected to have:

- National 5 German

What will I study?

This course aims to help you develop your reading, listening, talking and writing skills in German, in a variety of contexts. You will encounter a wide range of different types of texts in different media. In addition, the course also provides you with knowledge of Germany and the customs and way of life of the German people.

The course consists of two areas of study.

Understanding German

You will:

- develop and extend reading and listening skills in German
- develop your knowledge and understanding of detailed and complex German in the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture.

Using German

You will:

- develop and extend talking and writing skills in German
- develop your knowledge and understanding of detailed and complex German in the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture.

How will I be assessed?

Please note - for the 2022-23 session there is no assignment, only the 4 components.

The course assessment has five components totalling 120 marks:

- Component 1: question paper 1 (reading) – worth 30 marks
- Component 2: question paper 1 (directed writing) – worth 20 marks (scaled up to 30 for 2022-23 session)
- Component 3: question paper 2 (listening) – worth 20 marks (scaled up to 30 for 2022-23 session)
- Component 4: assignment (writing) – worth 20 marks
- Component 5: performance (talking) – worth 30 marks.

For the assignment component, you will be required to produce a piece of writing (200-250 words) in German based on one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, culture.

For the performance component, you will take part in a discussion with your teacher or lecturer, using detailed and complex language on at least two different contexts, and respond to questions in German relating to each of the contexts.

The performance component is set and verified externally by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA), and assessed and marked by your school or college.

Both the question papers and the assignment are set and externally marked by SQA.

The grade awarded is based on the total marks achieved across course assessment.

The course assessment is graded A-D.
