

Higher English (Course Code: C824 76)

SCQF Level 6 (24 Credit Points)

Why study English?

Language and literacy are of personal, social and economic importance. Your ability to use language lies at the centre of the development and expression of your emotions, thinking, learning and sense of personal identity.

This course gives you the opportunity to develop skills in listening, talking, reading and writing, which are essential for learning, life and work. You will develop your ability to communicate your thoughts and feelings and respond to those of other people.

The skills that you develop in English are useful in a wide range of careers; these include teaching, editorial, journalism, administration, legal work or in the arts.

What do I need to get in?

Entry is at the discretion of the school or college, but you would normally be expected to have:

- National 5 English

What will I study?

On this course you will develop:

- key communication and literacy skills in reading, writing, talking and listening
- understanding, analysis and evaluation of detailed texts in the contexts of literature, language and media, including Scottish literature
- the production of detailed and complex texts in a range of contexts
- knowledge and understanding of language.

How will I be assessed?

The course assessment has three components totalling 100 marks:

- Component 1: question paper: Reading for Understanding, Analysis and Evaluation – worth 30 marks
- Component 2: question paper: Critical Reading – worth 40 marks worth 40 marks (consisting of 2 sections each worth 20 marks, section 1 - Scottish texts, and section 2 – Critical essay)
- Component 3: Portfolio Writing – worth 30 marks

For the portfolio component, you will produce one text: either broadly creative, or broadly discursive.

During the course you will also be assessed on performance-spoken language, which involves doing at least one spoken language activity, such as contributing in a group discussion or preparing and presenting a presentation. This is graded on an achieved/not achieved basis.

Both the question papers and the assignment are set and externally marked by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA).

The grade awarded is based on the total marks achieved across course assessment.

The course assessment is graded A-D.
