

National 4 Latin (Course Code: C743 74)

SCQF Level 4 (24 Credit Points)

Why study Latin?

Latin may not be a modern language but it lives on in many different ways. Originally spoken in the area around Rome, it had a major influence on the development of many European languages including: English, French, Italian, Portuguese, Romanian and Spanish. That's why it can be useful when you are learning other languages.

We still use Latin phrases and terms such as 'post mortem' today. We also use it in abbreviations like etc. (et cetera). Latin is used in science, for example in naming plant and animal species, as well as in law and medicine.

And, of course, it gives you a real insight into the culture and literature of ancient Rome.

The skills you learn in Latin are relevant to many career areas.

What do I need to get in?

The school or college will decide on the entry requirements for the course. You would normally have achieved:

- National 3 Latin

What will I study?

In this course you will get to develop translation skills and the ability to understand, analyse and evaluate through studying Latin language and literature. You will appreciate how languages are interconnected, and understand the contribution of Roman civilisation to your own culture and that of others. You will develop your literacy skills by listening, talking, reading and writing in English, and reading in Latin.

The course has two compulsory units, plus an added value unit that assesses your practical skills.

Latin: Translating (9 SCQF credit points)

In this unit you will:

- study straightforward Latin texts
- develop the language skills needed for translation

- develop knowledge of vocabulary and rules of grammar.

Latin: Literary Appreciation (9 SCQF credit points)

In this unit you will:

- develop the language skills needed to understand, analyse and evaluate straightforward texts in Latin and translated into English
- develop knowledge and understanding of literary techniques and aspects of Roman culture.

Added Value Unit: Latin Assignment (6 SCQF credit points)

In this unit you will:

- investigate a chosen topic by reading and selecting relevant information from texts in Latin and translation
- present your findings orally or in writing, and respond to questions.

How will I be assessed?

Your work will be assessed by your teacher on an ongoing basis throughout the course. Items of work might include:

- practical work – reading, speaking or listening to texts
- written work – producing simple texts
- class-based exams.

You must pass both units plus the added value unit to gain the course qualification.
