National 3 ESOL (Course Code: C727 73)

SCQF Level 3 (18 Credit Points)

Why study ESOL?

Language and literacy skills are important in your personal, social and working life. And, you need good language skills for self-expression, thinking and learning.

Learning ESOL (English as a Second Language) will give you the opportunity to develop your skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking English in practical settings.

What do I need to get in?

The school or college will decide on the entry requirements for the course. Your previous experience or learning may also be taken into account.

What will I study?

This course will help you get the right skills for learning English as a second language. You will learn how to read, write, listen and speak in a variety different situations and settings. Your critical and creative thinking skills will also improve as well your cultural awareness.

The course has two compulsory units.

ESOL for Everyday Life (9 SCQF credit points)

In this unit you will:

- develop language skills needed for everyday life in routine personal, social and work-related settings
- develop skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking using simple English language.

ESOL in Context (9 SCQF credit points)

In this unit you will:

- develop language skills needed for routine work and study related settings
- develop skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking using simple English language. This unit can be suited to meet your personal needs.

How will I be assessed?

Your teacher or tutor will assess your work on a regular basis throughout the course. Items of work might include:

- practical work – reading, speaking or listening to texts
- written work – producing simple texts.

You must pass both units to gain the course qualification.
