

Higher Classical Studies (Course Code: C815 76)

SCQF Level 6 (24 Credit Points)

Why study Classical Studies?

Classical Studies develops your knowledge and understanding of classical Greek and Roman civilisations by comparing these societies with the modern world. You will use investigating and analysing skills to understand, explain and link the classical and modern worlds.

Classical Studies also provides you with a useful background for work such as comparative literary studies, classical languages, archaeology, medieval studies and European studies.

What do I need to get in?

Entry is at the discretion of the school or college, but you would normally be expected to have:

- National 5 Classical Studies

What will I study?

The course consists of three areas of study.

Life in classical Greece

You will develop:

- skills to evaluate the usefulness of sources of evidence in comparing and contrasting the classical Greek and modern worlds
- in-depth factual and theoretical knowledge and understanding of religious, political, social, moral or cultural aspects of life in classical Greece.

Classical literature

You will develop:

- skills to evaluate universal ideas, themes or values revealed by classical literature from either classical Greek life or classical Roman worlds literature

- in-depth factual and textual knowledge and understanding of universal ideas, themes or values which link the classical and modern worlds.

Life in the Roman World

You will develop:

- skills to use sources of evidence, including archaeological evidence, to compare and contrast the classical Roman and modern worlds
- in-depth factual and theoretical knowledge and understanding of religious, political, social, moral or cultural aspects of life in the classical Roman world.

How will I be assessed?

The course assessment has three components totalling 110 marks:

- Component 1: question paper 1 (Classical literature) – worth 30 marks
- Component 2: question paper 2 (Classical society) – worth 50 marks
- Component 3: assignment – worth 30 marks.

For the assignment component, you will choose an issue or question, collect and evaluate evidence; organise, analyse and synthesise information from a range of sources: compare and contrast the classical and modern worlds; and come to a conclusion about the issue or question, supported with reasons and/or evidence.

Both the question papers and the assignment are set and externally marked by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA).

The grade awarded is based on the total marks achieved across course assessment.

The course assessment is graded A-D.
